His Sermons are GOOD

BUT his Delivery POOR

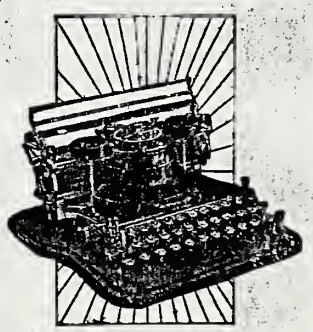
You often hear this criticism of well known clergymen. They have beautiful thoughts and put them into beautiful words - BUT their delivery leaves a congregation cold and unmoved - They don't get the Power of emphasis into their manuscripts or notes - fine points are lost in monotony of type.

Hammond

MULTIPLEX

STANDARD "WRITING MACHINE"

literally makes your writing t-a-l-k. With the instantly interchangeable type you write as you think with emphasis on every point, and every climax put into words that pulsate with your deepest feelings. And when you deliver a sermon typed on the Multiplex or refer to notes—you can't fail to get the telling power of emphasis into your delivery—the words stand out at you—you must get them to your listeners with feeling.



Prominent clergymen everywhere praise the versatility of the Multiplex, the only interchangeable type and language machine—the Multiplex typewriter has over 365 different arrangements of type and languages from condensed note size to extended type for headlines—and writes all languages from Sanskrit to Kata Kana Japanese.

"Just Turn the Knob" to change from ordinary type to emphatic Italics or from one language to another.

The Multiplex is the typewriter President Wilson uses personally.

The first paragraph of this advertisement shows a few samples of Multiplex type.

Write for booklet telling of all the marvels of the Machine that has made History—and for special rates to clergymen.

Rule 1. The rules of the General Conference shall be the rules of this Conference in so far as they are applicable to the proceedings of an Annual Conference and in so far as they do not conflict with our printed rules.

2. The Conference shall meet at 8:30 a. m., spending 30 minutes in devotional exercises, and adjourn at 12:00 p. m., but may alter the time of meeting at its discretion.

3. The Secretary shall keep a Journal of the Conference proceedings which he shall cause to be published in the Annual Minutes, and when so published it shall be the official Journal of this Conference. He shall edit all matters for publication in the minutes except the statistics, and shall make contracts for the publication thereof for the next Annual Conference or Quadrennium as in his judgment may seem best. He shall have charge of the Journal and Conference files, and forward them to the seat of the next Annual Conference. He shall be the custodian of the ancient documents of the Conference.

4. The President shall appoint all committees not otherwise ordered by the Conference but any member may decline serving on more than one committee at the same time.

7. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject, or more than five minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference, nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

8. It shall be in order to move that the question shall be taken without further debate on any measure pending before the Conference except in cases where character or Conference relations are involved, and if sustained by a two-thirds vote, the question shall be so taken.

Whereas, for several years there has been maintained at Albion a Summer School of Theology for under graduates of the Michigan and Detroit Conferences, and

Whereas, a school of this character is imperative if our young men are to receive the help and training to which they are entitled, and if our Conferences are to contribute as they ought to the preparation of an efficient ministry, and

Whereas, said School has, during the past year been reorganized through the creation of a Summer School Senate, representing our Episcopal Leadership, Board of Examiners, Faculty, and Student Body, and constituting a central body of control, and

Whereas, Our Boards of Examiners have this year demonstrated that they can function through this Summer School with greatly increased efficiency in their service of the under-graduates, and

REPORTS.

REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

Dear Bishop and Brethren of the Conference:

It was decided by your Superintendents to make a departure this year from the usual order, and substitute for the individual District reports a more formal paper summarizing our year's work, with very little particular allusion to individual pastor or church, but the rather bringing before the Conference certain problems whose consideration and solution is urgent upon us. In this we do not intimate that it would not be worth while to recite the achievement of pastors and churches really worthy of such mention. But we feel that it is especially desirable that we give our attention to some of the grave and important problems demanding consideration.

Your Superintendents can report a year of unusual activity with our pastors because of unusual demands upon them by the unusual conditions of war and pestilence and the Centenary. But with few exceptions, our pastors have met these unusual conditions with a fidelity and heroism worthy of men called to be leaders in the Church of God.

Let me summarize our year's work briefly before our excursion into less open fields.

A few outstanding facts concerning property interests should be mentioned. Two destructive fires made Benton Harbor and Trinity congregations homeless. But both congregations believed the God of heaven would prosper them, and immediately decided to arise and build.

The Centenary appeal was upon them and the Centenary drive before them—Trinity's less than a week away. But both of these congregations refused to be dismayed and both set themselves to this Centenary task—Benton Harbor for a quota of $23,885, and Trinity—$23,585, and both reached the goal before the end of the drive week—Benton Harbor, in a single day; and by so doing, these churches proved their loyalty to the great business of the Kingdom, and won for themselves the admiration of the people in the cities where they were, and the whole Conference also.

And then, Benton Harbor people scarcely pausing to get their breath, in the very next week following, set out to raise $100,000 to rebuild their church, and raised it all two days before their week was done, so that our Bishop, who went on the Sunday closing week to help them finish the job, had nothing to do but preach the gospel.

Trinity has plans made for a $200,000 church building—which when completed will be one of the finest church structures in the State of Michigan.

Cadillac is starting a building enterprise for a fifty or sixty thousand-dollar church. The plans have been decided on and half the cost of the building, or more, has been pledged.

A unique property project is before us in Manistee. There is what is known as the "Ramsdell Building" there, valued at $350,000, consisting of a fine auditorium, gymnasium, parlors, kitchen, dining-room, and a very elaborate equipment, which can be secured for $50,000; and the plan is to raise $150,000 and have $100,000 left for endowment. It is thought that if $50,000 can be raised outside the city of Manistee, the citizens there will raise the $100,000.

These are the great property interests now before us in our Conference.

The new church at St. Louis mentioned as in prospect by the Superintendent of Lansing District a year ago, has been dedicated during the year—a fine $12,000 building.

About $40,000 or $50,000 have been expended in other church building and church and parsonage improvements, and about the same amount has been paid on old indebtedness. Harbor Springs and Petoskey have paid a $5,000 debt each, and Central Church Traverse City has half its heavy debt subscribed.

That denominations are coming closer together and uniting forces for more efficient work is shown at Evart, where the Presbyterians have formed a league offensive and defensive with the Methodists, and these two societies, under properly guarded agreement have merged their congregations in the Presbyterian meeting house, with the Methodist preacher as pastor of the flock, and the plan so far works well.

We regret that not so many converts were made this year as last, and we fear that our reports will show a decrease in our church membership this year. The season usually devoted to revival effort was when the influenza epidemic broke out and spread over our Conference quarantining our churches, making public services impossible. This, with the attention of our people fixed on the Centenary Campaign will, in the main, account for this falling off, if such there was. Our pastors have not lost their desire to win souls as the chief end of their ministry, and they are now girding themselves to prove it in the coming days.

It has been a year of unusual mortality among us. Fourteen of our ministers have died—the largest number in any single year of our history—and six preachers' wives and widows have also died. Fitly to characterize these men and women would take the time of this entire hour. We have held memorial service for them, and laid down our sorrowful tribute of respect and love, and we only give their names again.

M. A. Daugherty, aged 95; T. T. George, whose ministry began in 1857, aged 89; D. F. Barnes, ministry beginning in 1858, aged 86; J. W. White, aged 77; A. W. Bushee, 77; A. M Gould, 74; M. M. Callen, 70; O. J. Blackford; R. R. Atchison, H. W. Thompson, E. E. Sprague, John Bretz, C. A. Brown and W. B Benn have died.

The sainted women are: Mrs. H. M. Joy; Mrs. A. A. Geiger, Mrs. J. P. Durham, Mrs. W. W. Johnson, Mrs. J. W. Davids, Mrs. R. M. Millard. All these are now in the Church Triumphant before the throne of God.

They fought the good fight, they died in the faith, and they have entered into rest and eternal blessedness.

And now we may set our faces to the difficulties before us which we may call our problems.

Our Conference presents a diversified field of City, Town, Hamlet and Open Country. We have rich, fertile sections and almost desert regions. Some of our people are well-to-do, others comfortable, and many are poor. A few of our pastors are well supported, others have just a bare living wage, and many cannot live on what the people pay and must have outside help. This diversified field with diversified conditions present varied and complex problems, some of which we desire to bring to your attention.

1. OUR CITY PROBLEM.

In the city, conditions are most complex. Foreigners gather here in the largest numbers—people of all sorts of notions concerning life, domestic, social, educational, political, and religious. These people are in most part without knowledge of God's saving grace, and without adequate conception or proper appreciation of the institutions of our democracy. They are here because they chose to come. They came to escape oppression and to gain liberty, and opportunity to improve their condition. We have the right to insist that they adjust themselves to our ways and be loyal to our flag, or go back whence they came. We can tolerate no people here who perjure themselves by swearing allegiance to our flag, and then try to overthrow our free institutions bought by the blood of our fathers.

Our problem is how to make them Christians, and American Christians; how to teach them what true religion is and what it means to be good citizens of our Republic. Our problem is how to make our churches, surrounded by these people, forces for their salvation and their uplift, and forces also to make them American patriots.

We must teach them and their children to love our Christ and our flag. To do it, we must go among them as one who serves. Men and women we must have, who will just as truly consecrate themselves to this work as a life task, as they would to go to China for such a task. They must live among these people and with them, and learn their language and their racial peculiarities, and identify themselves with them as truly as do our missionaries with the people they go to serve.

To get our young people to feel this and do this is not an easy task, but it must be so if we ever solve the city foreign problem. It is easy to become a reformer here, and talk about class distinctions and a living wage, and good housing, and social betterment, but we can never save and uplift the city's submerged and depressed classes by these methods alone. A bar of soap and a kettle of water and moving pictures will not do it all.

The salvation process is by individuals through the new birth in individual souls, and no modern socialistic wholesaling will ever accomplish the task. The progress will be slow, the road traveled will be hard and long, but it leadeth unto life.

In Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Jackson, Lansing, Kalamazoo, Albion, and other cities, we have problems pertaining to diverse populations there which will require unusual methods without doubt—perhaps the institutional church, the social settlement, the Community house, or something else—methods which have promise in them, even at large cost of money and life.

We are not now attempting to discuss the grave and great problems of social unrest and the relation of the Church to it. We will leave that for other men. But we do express our conviction that the church must face this problem with courage, and our church must take her share of the responsibility for its solution. until the good day of the Lord shall come when employers and employes shall count themselves partners in their business—laborers together with God—both entitled to a fair share of the profits, the combined result of the toil of brain and brawn.

2. OUR RURAL PROBLEM.

This may not be our most difficult problem, but it is important because of the fact that the farmer class is the largest and most indispensible single class we have, furnishing the food and clothing for the world and a large part of the world's leadership.

Back on the farms, out of sight of the world's eye, is the source of the stream of population constantly flowing into the city, to make the city's leaders, and largely to replenish the membership of our city churches and keep them out of the Cemetery.

Take out of the city churches today those who were country born and bred and these city churches would die. The debt of the city church to the little obscure country church has not yet been figured up. The country church is doing a bigger business than appears at first glance. It is furnishing religion for the people of its community, and exporting religion every year to the towns and cities round about it, as its sons and daughters leave the farm for city life, or its older members move to town.

These young people must be converted and given a vision of life before they reach the city or sorrows may be multiplied. This is one task of the country church, and one reason why we must take care of the country church.

This, we haven't done, and the rural church has been dying for years and the open country is thickly strewn with closed church buildings, where once the people thronged to hear the word of God; and closed, not because these country communities are depopulated now. People are there yet, as many as ever before, but indifferent to religion, and the children are growing up like heathen.

We used to get our preachers in large numbers from these communities, but the supply is falling off. There is one Open Country Community in our Conference which boasts of having sent six men into our ministry, but not a single one of them during the past quarter of a century. The sons of this community now, if they leave the farms, head toward the money-making industries at six or seven dollars a day. Their daughters learn stenography and work in offices at $15 or $20 a week. They do not go to the ministry or the mission field as formerly.

There is a lot of academic talk concerning the rural church problem by men who know very little about the real thing, which may help to advertise a condition we face in every country charge in our Conference, but it helps little in the solution of the problem.

For the proper development of the life of the country community, the country church is absolutely indispensable. You can't call these people to the churches in the town. They won't come. They have automobiles, and could if they would, but they wont. They are a class by themselves, and if we reach them at all, we must have churches out where they live, and these churches, if they reach them, must put on a program which sweeps the whole circle of community needs—god roads, good soil, good seed, good stock, good homes, good social and recreational life, good schools, and good churches. And the whole community must be brought together on such a program, which if continued through the years will work a work of construction.

Not only must we have good churches in the country, we must have good country schools, which now we have not. The Church and School are the two foundation stones of civilization, and we cannot have a democracy without education and morality.

The farmers children do not have a fair chance for education or religion—no such chance as the city boys and girls have.

We can never have a true democracy here and continue to spend $1.00 in educating a country boy while we spend $2.50 to educate the city boy.

The country boy must get his education in a little one-room, unsanitary building where an immature and unequipped teacher struggles vainly to impart knowledge in all the branches from A, B, C, to algebra. It can't be done and it isn't done, and some of the more well-to-do farmers send their more ambitious children off to the High School in the town, and then trouble begins—trouble for the child mayhap, out from under parental care: trouble for the farm almost invariably, for four out of five who go thus never come back; and presently the old folks must rent the farm and follow their children to the town, and then the community goes down the hill.

It is not fair that city children should have a better chance than farmers' children to get an education and a life equipment, and it must not continue so, or we will never make the country a place of permanent residence where young people will grow up and marry and establish homes.

The church alone cannot solve the rural life problem, but the church and the school together can. They together can make an atmosphere in which the community can develop.

We must have a rural High School where our country children can get a High School training with a curiculum fitted to their needs without separating them from their environments, and where they can be at home every night, and then enough of them will mate and marry and remain upon the farms, to identify themselves with the country community interests and qualified to shape these interests. Then the country home life will be made as comfortable as city home life and the country church will come back to her own and again be the fountain of supply for ministers and church workers.

The farmer may be a conservative and slow to see visions and dream dreams, slower than the people in the towns, but he hasn't had so good a chance for development in vision seeing, or dreaming dreams. Give him a chance and he will do it.

In our Centenary movement, farmers who saw the vision and caught the spirit gave splendidly of time and money to reach the goal. They will do this for community betterment also when they see the vision, and then we shall have the rural High School, and the rural Church with a program and an equipment and a pastoral leadership as efficient as the city has, and as well supported.

We must set ourselves to this task and our first need is leadership, men well-equipped who have the consecreation to take a country church and stay by it, counting it a task absolutely worth while. It isnt so today, but it must be made so or bankruptcy is ahead of us.

We have our foreign problem in the country too, as well as in the city. Foreigners are buying up the farms and crowding our American born people out, and unless we, as a church, adapt ourselves to these changed conditions; and undertake to give religious care and education, and direct the social life of these people, "Ichabod" is written on these Methodist country churches.

It is a problem of no small proportions how to adapt ourselves to these changed conditions and minister to the needs of these new settlers, but the problem must be solved, or we who claim the world is our parish must restrict our claim. We are weakly lying down before this task and seeing ourselves dispossessed of the land. We do not here offer a solution of this country foreign problem, but we urge attention to it most earnestly.

One word right here about our overchurched small town. It is easy to get the hysterics over this and do a lot of foolish talking.

What can we do about it? In four cases out of five, and more too, we can't do anything; for our small town church is almost always hitched up with two or three open country churches, which themselves would perish if separated from the little church in the village.

Until we can solve the country problem and so develop our country communities that they can stand alone, we can't talk very much about abandoning the little village heads of circuits. It is easy for other denominations to talk that way, for they have almost no circuit system, and the question of their churches uniting with others in the town affects only themselves; but with us in these small towns it is "others"—the country churches outside, and "others" is the spirit of the gospel.

3. THE PROBLEM OF MINISTERIAL SUPPLY.

No business can get on well without competent leadership—the ministry not excepted. We need a well-equipped ministry, for the preacher is the divinely called and church ordained leader, and we cannot get on without him. Say what you will about high class lay ability in our churches, the highest success of these churches as industrial plants putting out Kingdom products, depends very largely upon the efficient leadership of our preachers.

Where would there be revivals but for the preacher who arouses his people to prayer and faith and leads them in soul-saving endeavor?

Where would churches be built, or improvements made, or debts paid, in nine cases out of ten, but for the preacher? In almost every case where the Centenary went over the top, it was largely due to the pastors leadership.

Leadership is what we need, efficient pastoral leadership. And if we as Superintendents might assume to give advice to the young preachers now entering our ranks, it would be that they pause at the door long enough to find out what efficiency in our ministry really means, and what thorough equipment for this high calling really is, and what will make for their success. They need not worry then about appointments, but may be concerned about personal equipment and giving full proof of their ministry. Appointments will be given them as big and important as they are competent to fill.

We are losing out in effective ministerial leadership. In our Conference today, we are doing more work than twenty years ago, but with fewer Conference men to do it with.

Our appointments have increased in number, our membership has increased 50 per cent, our property has doubled in value, but with a steadily decreasing force of effective Conference men. Our Conference roll has been growing shorter, our supply roll has been growing longer, and it is now almost 30 per cent. This means that disaster is ahead of us unless something can be done to avert it. The Church must be aroused to a sense of this danger, and parents must be aroused to teach their children seriously where they may best invest their lives.

True it is that the ministry is underpaid, and there is little to attract highly equipped young men to the ministry from the point of view of adequate compensation. They can sell their talents at a higher price in other parts. But it was always so and always will be so. The ministry will never be paid what its service is worth. This perhaps may be God's plan. The Levites had no part in the division of the land, but God himself was to be their reward. The preacher who gives himself to money getting and hoarding generally loses out in his high calling.

But the preacher ought to have a comfortable support. Bread should be given him, his waters should be sure. It is a crime to compel the preacher's wife, from sheer necessity, to make one dollar do the work of two or three, as many preachers' wives are doing. It isn't fair to make the preachers do all the sacrificing. The only man whose wage has not been materially increased during the past five years to keep pace with the increased cost of living is the preacher.

The cost of living has practically doubled in the five years past, but the average increase in preacher's support in our Conference during that same period is about 25 per cent.

To be as well supported today as five years ago, our preachers should have received this year $170,000 more than they did receive.

We must insist on a living wage for our preachers. A minimum of $1,200 cash for a man with wife and children who must keep a conveyance, leaves very little margin for doctor's bills or a rainy day. And if the Centenary receipts do not permit our Board of Home Missions to add very materially to the apropriation for our Conference, it will be deeply regretted. The two upper districts should have largely increased appropriations and some other sections of our Conference also, or Methodism must sound retreat.

If we do not insist on a living wage and do not get it, then our Conference list will continue to go down, but our supply list will not go up, and closed churches will be in towns and cities as well as in open country.

But when we have done all this, the ministry will not call men who would sell their wares to the highest bidder. The ministry has always been, and must always continue to be, a life of self-sacrifice for others, in which the preacher shall count not his life dear unto himself.

He must lose his life to gain it, and count all things but loss that he may win Christ and show forth the power of his resurrection. The attraction to the ministry must always continue to be its self-sacrificing spirit. and its obedience to a divine call. This is not easy in the age in which we live, and parents must be taught the way of the Lord themselves, and what it means to dedicate from the day of birth their children to God for a life's work as God wills.

4. THE CENTENARY.

The most stupendous and daring undertaking ever projected by any branch of the Christian church since the beginning has been achieved by the people called Methodists.

A year ago our Conference passed a resolution affirming its full sympathy with the Centenary plan and purpose, but concerning the "Financial Drive" expressed itself in the following language:

> "In the present serious war situation, demanding such unusual financial sacrifices by our people, which are imperative and must continue until the war is ended, we deem it inopportune for the church to project an 80 million-dollar drive while these conditions continue."

Military leaders and others then believed the war would continue through another summer, but two months later, to the surprise of everybody, the enemy sued for peace. and the war closed. That entirely changed the situation with us and we immediately swung into line and set ourselves to the program for the accomplishment of the stupendous task.

The program was built on sane principles of philosophy. and every step from beginning to end was upward, and every succeeding part of the program was cumulative.

Not a single part could be omitted without danger of great loss in the final outcome. To play the game according to the rules was imperative. Some didn't see it so at the begining, but they found it out—soon enough some of them to recover and win the victory, others all too late.

The program started with the prayer covenant, and what would have happened in our Methodism if every member of our church had signed that covenant and lived up to it? The heavens would have broken above us, and the power of God would have come down upon us, and we would have had the greatest religious awakening in our history. As it was, so many did sign, and so many did take to their knees, that the testimony widely given by our pastors is that there was a mighty religious awakening which deeply stirred the heart life of multitudes of our people.

Then came the "Stewardship of Life" call, and never was that call so needed in our church. Our young people were still singing:

"We'll go where you want us to go, dear Lord, O'er mountain or plain or sea," but they seemingly were not pausing when the song was over to hearken within their hearts as they said, "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth," because the ranks of our ministry were getting thinner and thinner, and for the first time in our history our Board of Foreign Missions found it necessary to send a deputation across the continent in search of young people to go this year into our Mission fields.

The Centenary did not come too quick for us with its appeal for life stewardship, for bankruptcy was ahead of us if it hadn't come.

The appeal for the Stewardship of money followed, as night follows day, and the financial call for one hundred million dollars plus.

This call did not come first. Some thought that was all there was to it and that the Centenary was a pocket-picking scheme. But it wasn't.

It was first of all spiritual, and then everything that followed became spiritual. This money test was our supreme test, for money giving after all is the acid test of a man's devotion.

The response to the appeal for tithers surprised everybody except those who know the ways of God in the hearts of men.

It wasn't a return to Judaism, nor a mechanical scheme to enrich the treasury. It was based on broad and deep principles, easily defended by an appeal to reason and the word of God.

As a "war measure," it was surely justifiable, and as such should have claimed the unqualified support of every preacher, and God so clearly put the seal of His approval upon it, that it may well be continued as a "peace measure" in the church.

One of our Superintendents who got the start of most of us by introducing the system on his District a year before the program started and who claims that his District was "first over the top," declares that nine-tenths of his Centenary money came from his tithers, and they numbered less than one-quarter of his membership.

Let all quibblers over legal aspects, and Judaic tendencies and the like, take notice here and inquire whether or not the finger of God is seen pointing along this trail.

But as we confronted the task and saw how big it was, we were pretty nearly overwhelmed with its magnitude and its seeming impossible. Our people had been giving lavishly for war measures and pouring out their money as they never before had done, and we who were slow of heart to believe were dazed, and stunned, and sick over our Centenary quotas, and our hands fell weakly down, for we did not think we could accomplish the impossible.

But as the days went by, and the prayers of intercession multiplied, the darkness began to get light before us, and our doubts to disappear, and we "highly resolved" to set ourselves to the task.

We knew we could do that. We could spend and be spent upon the task, and "play up! and play the game," keeping step with the army. And this we did, hoping in God.

One young preacher hadn't any faith for his insuperable task, nor courage, up to the night before the drive began. With clouds of darkness still about him, he turned desperately into his closet for an all night vigil with his God, and wrestled till the break of day. When the new day dawned, his name was no longer "Jacob" but "Israel," and he went out unable still to see one inch before his face, but assured of victory. As truly as Abraham walked by faitb, he walked, and "over tbe top," on a most difficult country circuit. He said that he had never so dreaded anything in all bis life, and had never so enjoyed doing anything. God, he said, went with him all the way.

And tbus it always was, and is, and will be, with men who walk by faith.

The Centenary taught us one important lesson. "To play the game accordng to tbe rules."

It was hard to do it for many of our preachers. Tbe influenza broke out with violence and many of our people died, almost putting some of our cburcbes entirely out of business, and on many of our charges tbe continuity of the program was utterly broken. Churches were closed three and four and six weeks, and were closed again for four weeks more, and the pastors could not work the whole program through and needed more time. If the "Flu" had not broken in so disastrously upon the program of education, or if the financial drive had been postponed six weeks, many who failed would have won out.

But the drive was on and could not wait, and some of our pastors by sheer faith and grit went to it and wrenched victory out of defeat, and proved tbat the impossible could he donc. Others toiled most valiently and deserve the distinguisbed Service Cross, though they did not reach the goal—deserve it more than some who did reach the goal without working half so hard. This is only justice to the faithful men wbose hearts were broken because tbey failed to reach their quota.

In the Centenary Drive, three of our districts passed their quota by nearly $70,000, and on Lansing District every charge went over the top but five.

15.000 Intercessors were secured, about 12,00 tithers, and nearly 2,500 signed the life service covenant.

We thank God for the chievement of our church and because of it, we can go forward to our share of tbe world's redemptive task. Our chievement has aroused the people of the whole Christian world to a feeling of their own responsibility, and encouraged them to good works also.

But the Centenary Drive is not over yet, and it ought not to stop until all our people have signed the prayer, and the Stewardship of Life, and time and money covenant. Tberefore we should devote ourselves most diligently in continuance of our campaign of education until we have mobilized our cntire army. Our people are not all in the game yet.

"Like a mighty army, Moves our churcb of God." only in the Hymn Book, yet.

And if we should spend our time for the next year on our unmobilized, unprepared mass of members to bring them to a war footing, we would do well.

Half our people, and more too, are inactive, lacking in social ideals and in any proper conception of what discipleship to Jesus Christ really means. They do little and they give little. Not half our people gave to the Centenary. If all had done accordinging to ahility as those who did, we should have gone far beyond our askings.

Not half our people have any true conception of what our church is for, or what membership means. It is "safety first" with a lot of them, and they do not even "watch their step."

If the next twelve months, we should set ourselves to the task of mobilizing the forces we now have and drilling them until we bave four million soldiers trained to fight and armed for battle, and marching out to a world conquest, our time would be well spent, even if we should not add one single recruit during that period. We should then be girded and equipped for the task our Lord sent us forth to do, and which we are doing now but weakly.

Our Statistical tables for church membership shame us every day, for our increases are turning to decreases, and so, lastly,

5. OUR EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN.

That was a remarkable meeting in Cleveland last June of the Bishops and District Superintendents of our church in this country, and the resolution of the Findings Committee, which most profoundly affected all, and which climaxed everything done at that Cleveland meeting, was the resolution suggesting for the coming year a definite simultaneous church—wide program of evangelistic endeavor for the conversion of a million souls—a 25% increase in our church membership before next June.

That was as daring as the call for one hundred million dollars plus, and will test the stuff we are made of with a more acid test.

We shall have to examine ourselves whether we be in the faith, and, more than that, we shall have to travail in pain for the birth of children. If the Methodist church shall win one million souls for Jesus Christ in the next twelve months, the Methodist church must be purified by fire to start with. Judgment must begin at the house of God, and with us who stand between the dead and the living with the issues of life in hand. We who are the watchmen on the walls must inquire anew for our mission and message, and must seek a new anointing—a new endurement of power.

"O that it now from heaven might fall
And all our sins consume!
Come Holy Ghost, for Thee we call,
Spirit of burning come!"

We are going out for a million souls, and our temptation will be anxiety to number Israel and get names enough to count a million.

But we must seek to get a million converted souls. It isn't enough that they raise their hand, or sign a card, or leave their name at the postoffice, to get converted.

The way of conversion is by repentance and faith and the New Birth. And let us hope that the new born will not be still born. Heaven grant us a revival which will cast the dumb spirit out and give the converts an experience to talk about and power of utterance that they may

"—— tell to sinners round
What a dear Savior they have found."

We may not insist on Shibboleths, but we must insist on saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, that we may have a million souls saved, not a million people who have joined the church with a name to live, but are dead.

We know where our field is and where these million souls are. They are in our homes, in our Sunday School, and round about us with church letters in secret and forgotten places. Here is a field white to the harvest that ought to be easy to gather, for all these belong to our family, and these should we bring into the family circle; but how many of our million shall be brands plucked from the burning, won from Satan's forces, the rich spoil of our battle and the captive of our prayers?

Our revival must invade the enemy's territory and take prisoners of war. It must change the moral atmosphere of communities and awaken and quicken the public conscience and arouse the church to a sense of responsibility for present day duties. It must ride no hobbies, it must have a proper sense of proportions, and it must take hold of the heart life of men and women and teach them to live soberly and righteously and Godly in this present world.

When we get our converts added to the church, we must remember that our task is not yet done. Too much in the past, we have thought it was.

But to get a man saved and added to the church does not present to the Kingdom a finished product. We have thought our work was done when we numbered converts and enrolled them as members. And we have not been so careful as we should have been to establish them in faith and doctrine and instruct them in the way of the Lord. Hence our churches are filled with an indifferent and easy going membership. That is why we found it so hard to get our quota of intercessors, life service stewards, and tithers. That is why so many of our people count in church membership only in the statictical tables. There are many people in the church, we could just as well get along without as with. Many of them are as much a liability as an asset.

If we get a million souls added to our membership, our last state may be worse than the first, unless we bring them in through the conversion door, and then harness them to the church activities, that they may become a real asset to the Kingdom.

Hence it must be a million souls won, and a million souls in training camp for army service, and mobilized for battle, and marching out to conquest over sin and Satan, to bring in that day when the Kingdoms of this world shall become the Kingdom of our Lord and His Christ. Then we shall face a new century to be made more glorious than the one we have just closed, before whose end shall come this whole world shall be evangelized and our Lord shall see the travail of his soul and shall be satisfied.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES, BOARDS AND AGENTS.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE AUDITOR.

The Conference Auditor reports that the books of the Conference Treasurer are carefully auditted for last year and found correct, that the vouchers for District Missionery Funds, distributed by the District Superintendents, the account of the Conference Secretary, and the Transportation Secertary's books have been examined and appear correct.

G. B. FLEMING,
Conference Auditor.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE M. J. CLARK MEMORIAL HOME.

The Clark Home has been filled to capacity with contented and happy old people the year through.

Superintendent Freeman continues to be a wise manager of the Home affairs, a younger brother to these aged men and women, and a religious counsellor for all the residents. Through his skillful handling of the building enterprise and success in enlisting aid from outside, the fine new Superintendent's residence was completed, adding a property to the equipment of the Home Grounds worth at least $6,500 at an expense to the Board of only $3,000. The unanimous request of this Board is for the reappointment of Bro. Freeman for another year. .

So urgent was the call for more room to provide for the increasing number of applicants, that the Board decided to move the church building, standing unused on the ground, and attach it to the Home in the rear in such a way as not to mar the architectual effect of the property, and out of it make a chapel for worship and nineteen additional rooms for other worthy old people who seek such a haven of refuge and rest, where their comfort and care will be assured. The nineteen rooms will add upwards of 40% to the capacity of the Home. The building has not yet been completed and the expense incurred cannot now be reported.

We have at the present time forty-four people in the Home, and there are eight others whose applications have been accepted by the Board to be admitted just as soon as this new addition is completed. Besides this there are seven applications for admission now awaiting Board action.

Death has taken four during the year: Mrs. Poole, Mrs. W. W. Johnson, Mrs. Dubers, Mrs. Hannah Smith, whose last days were made comfortable by this philanthropy.

The report of Mr. L. L. Skillman, treasurer, will show our financial condition.

We need a larger income to make possible a larger work of philanthropy, and we trust our pastors will call the attention of their people to this opportunity for investment in dividend bearing securities which promise blessed returns in the life that now is, and that which is to come.

There is coming to be a very great urgency for an infirmary or a hospital as an added equipment. Permanent breakdown—physical and mental—will be inevitable with some of the residents, and an equipment, other than just a home, will be needed, and is now needed, to care for such. The comfort of other members of the family requires this, as well as the proper care of such unfortunates. We are hoping and praying that some big-hearted man or woman who has an abundance of this world's goods will make such added equipment possible.

The Trustees have given their time faithfully to their duties, and as President, I take pleasure in commending their fidelity to the Conference. They have worked in greatest harmony the year through.

Mr. M. L. Cook, elected a year ago a trustee, found it impossible to serve on the Board, and Prof. Frank A. Bacon of Grand Rapids, son of a member of this Conference now deceased, was elected by the Board to serve in Mr.. Cook's stead, and he is proving himself a valuable member of the Board. We trust the Conference will confirm this election.

Respectfully suhmitted,

J. C. FLOYD,
President of the Board.

COMMITTEE ON THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

This committee desires to emphasize the vital importance in the New Day of an adequate and vigorous program for Epworth League activities. The ultimate success of the Centenary will depend more largely upon the consecrated service of trained men and women than upon the great sums of money pledged to the cause. The Epworth League is the recruiting ground and the training school for service in the Army of the Lord.

For this reason, we recommend most highly the Michigan State Epworth League Institute at Albion, and urge upon our pastors to secure the attendance of a picked number of Leaguers.

We also endorse the Twenty-four-hour Day plan for Epworth League finance, and request all pastors and League officers to familiarize themselves with it and to urge its adoption in the chapters.

Every effort should he made to organize at least one Mission Study class in each chapter. An informed Epworth League is an inspired one, and an inspired League is triumphant.

Especially do we urge that each League chapter will make a determined and persistant effort to Christianize the social life of its community. Here is our great opportunity and our great challenge.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

The report of the statistical secretary, showing a decrease of 2,500 in membership in the Michigan Conference this year, makes us pause and think. We are appalled. We are humbled. We therefore heartily welcome the slogan for this year of A MILLION SOULS FOR CHRIST'S KINGDOM. We think it has come just in time to save the day.

We hereby affirm our faith in the Holy Spirit as our greatest need and God's potent agency in baptising his people with unction and power. We call upon our pastors and people to honor the Holy Spirit and seek his baptism.

We affirm our confidence in all the accredited means of the church. Such as—The Time Legion, Constituency Roll, Personal and Public Appeal, Decision Day in the Sunday School, Win My Chum Week, and every other reasonable means to win folks for Christ.

We recommend the using of the Minute Men, whose messages were so effective in the centenary, in bringing the message of saving grace to needy hearts.

All Together Now, Bishops, District Superintendents. Pastors and People let us look to God and face the task and save the church from this humiliation and push to victory.

ONE MILLION SOULS FOR CHRIST THIS YEAR.

A. A. GEIGER.

THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Your committee rejoices with you over the achievements of the past year in the great Centenary Campaign.

Resolved, That we carefully follow up these subscriptions "that nothing he lost," and that we all continue the campaign for the stewardship of tithers, until we reach the goal more worthy of the traditions of our great church.

Resolved, That the District Superintendents he authorized to apportion the following amounts to the charges as annual Conference benevolenees:

Clark Memorial Home, 1% of pastor's cash salary.

U. of M. Pastor, $1,500.

Aldrich Deaconess Home, $1,800.

We have had an increase for Aldrich Deaconess Home over last year of $208, yet our apportionment of $1,800 was still short $325; sixty-two charges having failed to report anything for that worthy cause.

Resolved, That we include under "Other Collections" the following:

District Emergency Fund.

Anti-Saloon League.
Wesley Hospital.
Detroit Children's Home.

COMMITTEE ON GENERAL REFERENCE AND RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the Michigan Annual Conference expresses its high appreciation of the many courtesies that have been extended by the citizens of Lansing, the pastors of the various churches, the press, the Y. M. C. A., the business men, the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, that their keen interest, gracious reception and open-hearted hospitality have greatly contributed to the success of the Conference..

Resolved, That we endorse the general purpose of the proposed League of Nations as being a movement toward the unification of the Democratic peoples of the earth in the "Parliament of Man" which shall as far as possible safeguard the peace of the world through the years to come.

Resolved, That the time has come in the judgment of the Michigan Annual Conference when a conserted effort should he made to bring the support of our ministers in the effective ranks to a minimum of $1,200 per year.

Resolved, That we the members of the Michigan Annual Conference heartily appreciate the strong and vigorous administration of our presiding bishop in the Detroit area. We express the hope that the Committee on Episcopacy will return Bishop Henderson to the Detroit area for another quadenium.

REFORMS.

1. Your Committee on Reforms would suggest that every possible effort be made to induce our people to observe more carfeully our Christian Sunday, and that in this connection, wherever at all possible, a campaign be waged against the Sunday Picture Show and other kindred desecrations of the day.

2. We would also urge that the State Legislature he asked to provide for a State censorship of moving picture films; that our various churches and men's classes and other adult Bible classes take this matter up, and hy resolution ask for the enactment of a safe, sane and serviceable law, and the creation of a strong State censorship board.

3. We believe that greater emphasis should be placed upon constructive measures relative to entertainments and amusements for young people. Instead of always saying "don't," that we begin to provide suitable pleasures for the growing generation. To this end, we recommend that in every official board a committee on amusements he appointed who shall lay plans for a more definite and constructive program in this important field.

FIELD SECRETARY ENDOWMENT FUND.

The task assigned the Field Secretary this year was the administration and conservation of the assets of the Superannuate Fund. No public appeal has been made for additional funds, right of way having been given to the Centenary drive. However, in voluntary gifts, promises and wills this year, our assets appear to have been increased about $11,000.

Our Treasurer's books show that the sum of $30,238 has been received into our treasury this year from various sources up to August 31st. At least $1,750 has been received since. The amount of interest received this year for our annual distribution to claimants is the largest in any year of our history. This is largely due to the careful attention and kindly spirit of our efficient Treasurer supported of course by our devoted friends throughout the Conference. Our pastors are our chief support, without whose help we should not prosper and to whom we are grateful.

The one percent on pastors' salary should have brought to us at the close of last year $3,093, but actually amounted to only $1,987. The number of pastors who, according to the record, failed to pay the one percent last year is one hundred ten, representing a withholding from our fund of $1,106. At six per cent intereset this amount would have yielded about $66 more for distribution this year, and would bave brought our check for you up to nearly $6,000. If the one per cent could have been applied for immediate and direct distribution, instead of being funded for its interest, and all paid in, we should have had $9,000 for our worthy and needy veterans this year.

Since last Conference the sum of $16,400 has been loaned out in real estate mortgages, our policy being to require security of twice the value of the loan. This rule will avoid any losses on loans.

At the beginning of this year two hundred twenty-eight old notes were passed over to the Field Secretary for examination and collection, the aggregate amount being about $17,000. After such attention to them as I have been able to give, my estimate of them is as follows: Of the $16,650 in notes, about $1,168 are considered good, $6,246 doubtful, and $9,236 worthless. Of course, this is in part my estimate, and the results of further effort may change these figures.

Our total permanent assets appear as follows:

Real estate	$30,271 00
Mortgages on real estate	99,140 00
Bonds and stock	15,250 00
Live stock and tools on farms	1,823 00
Interest-bearing notes	27,865 00
Non-interest-bearing notes	38,653 00
Jubilee fund pledges	568 00
Total	$213,570.00

Our estimate of the Jubilee Fund pledges is that at least $400 will not be paid. If we deduct from the above aggregate this estimated deficiency and the sum of the notes considered worthless above mentioned, we show as the dependable assets of our fund $203,934.00. We have two certificates of stock amounting to $750 which have been carried on our books as of value of $500, and which were accepted in payment of a note to our fund, whose value is very doubtful.

Of the $66,518.00 in notes, $51,525 are "payable at death," and these are problematical. Our experience in probate matters this year indicates that probably about one-half of the "death-notes" are productive. But this, too, is an uncertain estimate.

For a detailed financial statement, I refer you to our Treasurer's Report as printed in the Conference Minutes.

During the time of our possession and occupancy of the Mills farm, the net proceeds to us have been $407 while the annuities paid out have aggregated $1,350, showing a net loss to claimant's distribution account of $942. During the period of our ownership of the Godrich farm, the net profits to us have been $2,302, the annuities paid $1,890, showing a net gain to the claimants' distribution account of $412. According to expert estimate, we have on the Mills farm at present about $3,000 worth of salable crops beside live stock worth $1,325. We have on the Goodrich farm about $500 in crops and $498 in live stock. After our check of $5,900 is paid over for distribution to Conference claimants this year, we still have $2,815 on hand.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE FIELD SECRETARY OF THE SUPPLY PASTOR'S ENDOWMENT FUND FOR THE YEAR 1918-1919.

We have been greatly handicapped in our work this year by the rightful first place the Centenary has taken in all our churches.

Charges that have opened to our appeals have responded splendidly. Pastors in many cases have been over cautious. One pastor on a very hard field not only went over the top" on the Centenary, but his people subscribed $1,730.00 to this fund. This includes the gift of a house and lot valued at $900.00. This house is available for occupancy now, and will settle for some worthy Brother the question of a home for the coming year.

The fact that there have been no large gifts this year makes our totals seem small.

The total amount of new subscriptions taken this year was $5,278.50.

Cash collections for the year General Fund.....	$1,912 00
Interest on pledges.....	249 07
Interest on mortgages.....	899 00
Total	$3,060 07
Value of house and lot.....	900 00
Grand total	$3,960.07

We have interest available for distribution at this Conference session $1,189.71.

Respectfully submitted,

W. P. MANNING, Field Secretary.

SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION.

Cash on hand at the close of business last year September 30, 1918, $147.90. Cash on hand September 1, 1919, $147.90 plus interest for 11 months at 4 per cent totaling $153.32. According to the law of transportation adopted in 1908, this amount has been carried forward and used to reduce the rate of assessment which this year is .004. Total received from Conference balances $562.69. Paid out in personal balances $113.95. Expenses of office $37.25, total expenditures to date September 15, $151.20.

Of the 425 possible participants, 281 had Conference balances, while 144 had personal balances; 260 of the former have paid, while 80 of the latter have received their checks, leaving 64 of the brethren unpaid.

Respectfully submitted.

ROY COULEE LORD, Secretary.

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE.

Believing the Christian Sabbath to be one of the foundation stones of our civilization we deplore its widespread desecration and call upon our people to assist in the enforcement of such Sabbath laws as we now have.

Whereas, The White Slaver plays his traffic in every town and village, be it resolved that we ask our pastors to conduct such program of education as is necessary to protect our young people.

Whereas, The tobacco evil, especially the use of the cigarette, has largely increased during the war, resolved that we endorse the program of our Board of Temperance and Reform for the suppression of the same.

Whereas, There is general rejoicing among us over our temperance victories let us beware lest we fall asleep and the enemy take us unaware and we loose what we have gained.

PLAN OF CONFERENCE EXAMINATIONS.

RULES GOVERNING EXAMINATIONS.

Rule No. 1. Because of the very great advantages offered to every student by the Albion Summer School of Theology, it is expected that every student shall attend. That the fullest possible preparation shall be made, and that the fullest benefits may be received, it is imperative that every one shall observe Rule No. 2.

Rule No. 2. Examinations can not be taken until the "Required Written Work" has been completed and in the Instructor's hands. Each Instructor is to divide the required written work of his subject into eight equal parts, the written work on each of these eight required parts to be sent by the student to the Instructor, one part each month, beginning November 1, to June 1, inclusive. These monthly papers will be criticised and if postage is included by the student, returned to him. It is the desire of the Board of Examiners that the required written work on books for examination, books for collateral reading, and special Homiletics be carried on simultaneously.

3. NO CREDITS WILL BE ACCEPTED BY THE BOARD FROM ANY SCHOOL OR COLLEGE EXCEPT THOSE SIGNED BY THE REGISTRAR OF THE INSTITUTION.

4. All examination papers shall be written in the presence of a member of the board of examiners, and shall be sent signed to the proper examiner by the supervisor. Papers should be of light weight and written on one side only. Receipts shall be given to candidates for all papers submitted. Papers will be returned when specially requested and proper postage furnished.

5. The required written work and the special homiletic material should be submitted to the proper examiner as he may direct, in accordance with the requirements of the Book of Directions and Helps.

6. Each candidate shall pay an annual fee of two dollars and fifty cents at the first examination of the year, or at the Summer School.

7. Candidates with more than one condition will not be advanced from one class to another, save by a three-fourths vote of the membership present.

8. All candidates must meet the board in session. Candidates for admission on trial or into full connection must meet the board on the evening of the first day of conference.

9. Every undergraduate is expected to be at the Summer School unless for very special and imperative reasons he is excused from attendance by the Chairman of the Board of Examiners.

Those who, for sufficient reason, are excused from attendance at the Summer School of Theology can arrange through the Chairman of the Board for their examinations.

MEMOIRS

ROBERT R. ATCHINSON.

Robert R. Atchinson was born at Elizabeth City, N. J., Sept. 14, 1844, and passed to his reward Dec. 30, 1918, from his home in Woodland. At the age of 14 he went to sea as a sailor, and on one of his voyages made the trip around Cape Horn to California, where he remained for several years. Upon his return he enlisted in Co. E, First New Jersey cavalry, Nov. 14, 1861, from which he was discharged May 11, 1862. He re-enlisted in Co. B, 97th Pennsylvania infantry Sept. 11, 1863, from which he received an honorable discharge Aug. 28, 1865.

ROBERT R. ATCHINSON.

He was converted at the age of 13, and began his ministerial labors as a local preacher in 1871, preaching eight years in Boston and seven in Chicago.

In October, 1886, he joined the Minnesota Conference, where he served the following churches: Twenty-fourth Street, North Church, Camden Place and Western Avenue, Minneapolis, and First Church, St. Cloud. He was also superintendent of Wilmar district for five years, after which he served in the pastorate at Wadena, and Detroit, Minn.

In 1902 he was transferred by Bishop Foss to Detroit conference, where he served the following pastorates: Au Sable, Flushing and Williamston. In 1907 he was appointed conference evangelist, but owing to the illness of his wife was obliged to give up the work, and took a pastorate at Duplain, Michigan Conference, transferring to this conference in 1908. In January, 1909, at Duplain, he was bereaved in the death of his wife, Mary Bradbury Atchinson, whom he had married Sept. 8, 1868, in Newark, N. J.

He also served Woodland, Nashville and Hanover. In 1913 he was granted a retired relation because of failing health. He went to Florida and finding a church without a pastor, he preached there one year after which he came to Woodland to spend his remaining days.

Brother Atchinson's labors were marked with great success in soul winning on every charge he served. As long as his strength permitted he assisted in revival services and preached.

For five months he has been a great sufferer, but he bore it with great patience and Christian fortitude. He often prayed to go home, yet with patient Job he said, "All the days of my appointed time will I wait till my change cometh."

Brother Atchinson leaves his wife, Mrs Margaret Smith Atchinson, to whom he was married in 1911; also an adopted son in Portland, Ore.

The funeral service was conducted at his late home, Jan. 1, by his pastor, Rev. B. J. Youngs, assisted by Rev. George Yinger, of Nashville, and Rev. George Culler, pastor of the Brethren Church in Woodland. The body was laid to rest in Woodland cemetery.

B. J. Youngs.

DOCTOR F. BARNES.

No nobleman is nobler than the ministerial nobleman, and therefore none are more worthy of a tribute.

Dr. Barnes was a noble type of the itinerancy. He was well born at Vergennes, Vermont, Nov. 22, 1833, and early turned his heart toward God and his attention to the Christian ministry, joining the Indiana Conference in 1858 and transferring to the Michigan Conference in 1866. He was a man of fine appearance and exceptional endowments. He honored his calling, won distinction in it, and retired from it with great reluctance and regret. In the zenith of his career he was favorably known throughout the whole church, and in the general Conference, to which he was four times elected a delegate, he was strongly supported for the general publishing agency, having been a member of the Book Committee for twenty years. In district work he excelled and he left a fine record for constructive administration in the pastorate. His Michigan appointments were as follows: Ionia Dist., '73; Grand Rapids Dist., '73-'77; Division St., '77-'79; Battle Creek, '79-'82; Coldwater, '82-'85; Kalamazoo Dist., '85-'91; Kalamazoo First, '91-'94; Ionia,

'94-'97; Supernumerary, '97-'99; Charlotte, '99-'03; Niles Dist., '03-'09; retired, '09.

DR. F. BARNES

He was one of the founders of Bay View, a trustee of Albion College and of the Northwestern University, and held other high positions of responsibility. His splendid intellectual gifts, gentlemanly qualities and high Christian character inspired confidence and esteem in all. After retiring from active work he found his home in Pasadena, Cal., where he died peacefully and triumphantly, March 24, 1919, loved and esteemed by members of First Church, where he worshiped, and greatly missed from their councils and associations. The funeral service was largely attended. Fellow preachers were his pallbearers. Dr. Merle N. Smith, his pastor, Dr. J. B. Albrook and Mr. J. B. Johnson delivered the addresses. Interment at Glendale, Cal.

In his last days and hours Dr. Barnes mourned the absence of his Michigan brethren. His wife, nee Miss Lucinda Raymond, of New York, had died twelve years ago, after sweet association of a lifetime. Beautiful, however, was the devotion of his children. His daughter, Frances, gave up a fine position as teacher in Detroit Central high school to be his associate and comforter in declining life. He is also survived by his son, A. R. Barnes, of Salt Lake City, formerly Attorney General of Utah, and his three daughters, Frances, Mrs. C. S. Hartman and Mrs. John Munger, of Pasadena.

Dr. Barnes is sincerely mourned by many brethren, near and afar. His record is clear, his work is his monument, and his reward is great.

James H. Potts.

WILLIAM BENNISON BENN.

William Bennison Benn was born at Whitehaven, Cumberland, England, June 14, 1886, and was called to his Eternal Home on October 26, 1918, at the Great Lakes Training Station near Chicago.

When a lad of 17 years of age, he left his native home, and set out alone to seek his fortune in America. He arrived in Toronto, Canada, with little money and no friends. In a short time he secured employment on a farm near Hamilton, Ont. He was ambitious to get an education and fit himself for the Christian ministry, and after a few months he entered Albert College at Belleville, Ont., working his way through and finishing his course. He entered the ministry in the Methodist Church in Canada and served for two or three years, when he heeded the call to work among poor and neglected boys, and went to Chicago where he became connected with the Boys' Work Movement, and for two years did very successful work among the poor boys of the down town district of that city.

After spending three years in the Canadian Northwest, preaching and working a homestead, he returned to Chicago, and from there came to Lansing, October 26, 1914, to be the pastor of a small Methodist mission on the south side of the city, which under his labors became the Mt. Hope Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church. In less than three years he had the satisfaction of dedicating a beautiful new church free of debt, having a membership of 150.

In May, 1918, heeding the call of the Y. M. C. A. for workers among the boys in the army, he offered himself and was accepted and assigned to the position of religious director at the Main Camp, Great Lakes Naval Training Station. In entering upon this work he had to break up his home, and leave his wife and little son, and also sever the tie that bound him so closely with his people, but he never hesitated a moment, feeling that he was but doing his duty. That his work in the Y. M. C. A. camp was successful was attested by all of his associates, who declared him to be the peer of any man in this line of work.

In September he was attacked by the dreaded epidemic, influenza, and although he made a gallant fight, death was finally the victor. As his body was being borne to the train, he was accorded full military honors, an unusual mark of respect to a civilian.

The funeral services were conducted by his district superintendent, Rev. W. H. Phelps, and he was laid to rest in the cemetery at Grand Blanc, Mich., near the home of his wife. He is survived by his father, mother, and one sister in England, and by his wife who was Miss Berneda Ried, and a one-year-old son, Alfred Reginald.

Brother Benn's life, measured by years was short, but measured by achievements, was long and an inspiration to all who knew him.

WILLIAM BENNISON BENN.

O. J. BLACKFORD.

In the death of O. J. Blackford on Sunday Morning, Oct. 27, 1918, Michigan conference lost one of her virile, sweet-spirited, consecrated members.

Brother Blackford was born at Baldwin City, Kan., Sept. 1, 1867. Scholastically well trained for the work of the ministry, a splendid high school course; A. B. from Baker University, and Ph. D. from Chicago School of Science, in 1896, and a careful student of the best of books, all his life.

He is survived by Mrs Blackford, to whom he was married on Dec. 15, 1897, her maiden name being Elizabeth R. Abel; two sisters, Mrs Bert Hayes of Galesburg, Mich., and Mrs Nettie Reynolds of Oklahoma; and two brothers, Wilbur H. of Atlanta, Ill., and John W. of Seattle, Wash.

O. J. BLACKFORD.

Dr. Blackford entered Detroit Conference in 1891, being stationed at Gladstone, 1891-93; Brighton, '93-95; Carleton, '95; Carleton, '96-98; Rochester, '98-01; Vassar, '01-03; Tabernacle, Detroit, '03; St. Clair, '04-09. He then transferred to the Genesee Conference, and filled pastorates at Gowanda, Brockport, and Bath, N. Y. In the fall of 1917, he was transferred to Michigan Conference and was appointed to Haven Church, Jackson.

His pastorate at Haven church was characterized by an evangelistic note, a thorough organization of the church, a careful looking after all departments of the church's life and activities, a conscientious performing of the pastoral work, and a pulpit message that fitted into the day in which we live.

Brother Blackford had a rich Christian experience, a growing vision of the greatness of the Church of Jesus Christ, a tender heart, a deep conviction on the essentials for our Christian faith, and the utilizing of the faculties of his being for kingdom purposes.

No public service could be held at the church on account of the "influenza ban," but a few gathered in the parsonage to look upon the face of their pastor and friend, who lay so quiet amid the many beautiful floral offerings. The services were in charge of the writer, assisted by Dr. A. R. Johns, Dr. Frederick Spence, Rev. G. S. Robinson, Rev. Mr. Shannon, of the Plymouth Congregational church, and Rev. W. P. Manning. The body was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Windsor, Canada.

Hugh Kennedy.

JOHN BRETZ.

Rev. John Bretz, pastor of our church at Freeport, died suddenly of heart failure Wednesday morning, April 2, 1919. Bro. Bretz was born in Wisconsin in 1861, and was converted in early manhood and felt his call to the ministry. A call for men in the great northwest took him to the Pacific coast, where he began his work in the Puget Sound conference about 28 years ago, and where he was ordained deacon by Bishop Newman, and elder by Bishop Andrews.

In 1903 he transferred to the Michigan Conference and was appointed to Lake City, on the Grand Traverse district, and since then he has served various charges on this and on the Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids districts.

In 1893 he was married to Lititia Crawford of Peotone, Ill., who passed away in 1904, leaving three children. In 1905 he married Flora B. Thompson of Marshall, who, with two daughters, Ruth of Peotone, Ill., and Mrs. Etta Miller and two grandsons of Gulia, Tex., survive.

He was devoted to his ministry and loved to preach the gospel, which he did preach with more than average ability. His sermons were clear and forceful and always evangelistic and orthodox according to the standards of the fathers.

He was greatly loved at Freeport by his people and highly respected by all the citizens, which manifested itself in the closing of all places of business in the town during the hour of the funeral service, and the very large attendance of all classes at the funeral, crowding the church to its utmost capacity.

The funeral service was conducted by the district superintendent, assisted by Revs. John R. Gregory, I. E. Weldon, J. A. DeGraff, C. E. Hoag and J. H. Wesbrook. The body was taken to Petone, Ill., for burial.

An upright man, a devoted man, a faithful minister of God, has fallen from our ranks. He died suddenly and unexpectedly, but he was ready for the Master's call.

J. C. Floyd.

JOHN BRETZ.

CHARLES A. BROWN.

Charles Albert Brown was born in the state of New York, Sept. 3, 1861, and moved with his parents at an early age to Montague, Mich. In 1886 he was married to Miss Addie Bettes of Montague. This was followed nine weeks later by the sorrow of her death. In 1898 he was married to Miss Mary Baker of Hope. Her training as a deaconess, added to her natural endowments, eminently fitted her for the position of a pastor's wife, and greatly strengthened his ministry. Three children were born to them; one rests in a little grave at Averill, while Byron, aged 12, and Florence, aged 15, with the mother, survive him.

Brother Brown joined the Michigan conference on trial in 1894, was ordained deacon in Lansing by Boshop Walden, and elder in Ionia by Bishop Fowler. He served the following pastorates: Ferry, Averill, Rosebush, Hersey, Morley, Marion, Schoolcraft and McBain.

He was a man of unusual physical energy, accustomed to hard work, and was lavish in the expenditure of his physical forces. These were unabated until two years ago, when he met with a fearful accident in the explosion of a gasoline lamp. He never fully rallied from this and finally in March his forces collapsed. He lingered for ten weeks, and on May 16 was promoted to the church triumphant.

CHARLES A. BROWN.

His integrity was as strong as the maples of the forest. He was a good man. The tinsel and superficial had little place in his life. He had a correct estimate of values and stressed the genuine and vital. His record of twenty-five years service in the Michigan conference is among the imperishable things of Kingdom construction, and the communities where he ministered were enriched by his virile personality, strong pulpit utterances and faithful and sympathetic pastoral oversight. Religious awakening, ingathering of souls, increase in benevolences, improvement in property and a general strengthening of Zion characterized his pastorates. He has entered into his reward while we close up our ranks and address ourselves to our unfinished task.

C. S. Wheeler.

A. W. BUSHEE.

Albert Wesley Bushee was born in 1842, in Livingston county, N. Y. At the age of four years he was left an orphan and he drifted from the home of one relative to another until he was fifteen years old, when he was converted. This changed every outlook in life, but the family with whom he was then living objected to his religion, and again he was homeless.

He now determined to prepare himself for the ministry, but the Civil War broke out, and the next three years were spent in his country's service. Upon his discharge, he planned to enter college, but the hardships of war had so worn upon his physical nature that physicians advised him to give up study for a time, which he did, a step which was always a regret of his life; but later he spent several years in Albion College.

In 1864 he was married to Miss Isabelle Young of Chautauqua, N. Y., and five children blessed their home—one son who died in infancy, and four daughters, the youngest of whom died nineteen years ago. The three surviving him are Mrs. Bertha Johnson of Albion, Mrs Grace Slack of Pittsburg, Pa., and Mrs Lulu M. Raine of Cleveland, O.

Brother Bushee was admitted to Michigan Conference on trial in 1883, and in full connection in 1887. His appointments were Cross Village, two years; Northport, one year; Spencer Creek, three years; Leroy, one year; Traverse City Circuit, one year; Boyne City, one year; Stittsville, one year, and Gresham, two years. He died in Jackson, Mich., February 11, 1919.

With the passing of Brother Bushee goes one of the most devout friends of Methodism, and an affectionate, loving husband and father. The one great comfort to the sorrowing family is the assurance that he is safe with our Heavenly Father, his last words being, "I'm going home."

The funeral services were held on February 14, at his late home in Jackson in charge of the district superintendent Rev. Jacob Clancy, a friend of many years, sang "I've Sighted the Golden Gate."

Hugh Kennedy.

MARSHALL M. CALLEN.

July 20, 1919, after a Sabbath full of work and worship in which he preached with unusual power and led the congregation in singing, Dr. Callen went to the parsonage home at Marshall, Michigan, lay down to rest, and was awakened by the angel song in the morning of the Eternal Day. Since the death of Mrs. Callen, three years before, he had been lonesome. He was quite alone in the house that night. No one knows the hour of his going. He had announced to his congregation that he should leave next morning for Eaton Rapids. The people of Marshall supposing he had gone, did not notice any change at the parsonage. The friends at Eaton Rapids, supposing him detained by pastoral duties, did not inquire until later in the week when it was found that without struggle, save as one hand had been lifted as though answering a summons, he had gone to be with God.

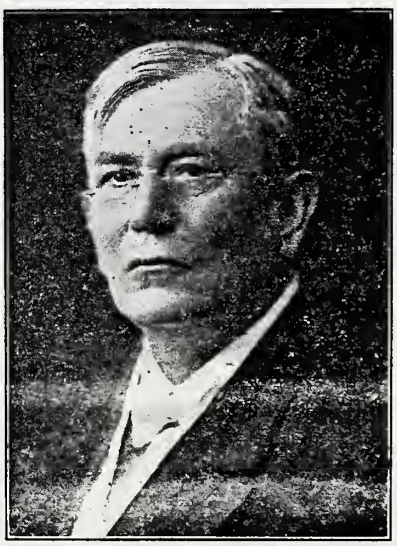
Marshall M. Callen was born in Knox county, Tennessee, May 16, 1849. He had passed his 70th anniversary in life and his 42nd in membership in the Michigan Conference. He was of sturdy mountain stock, and his people were loyal adherents and supporters of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He received his academic training in the Methodist school at Athens, Tennessee—then known as the East Tennessee Wesleyan University. It was at this school he met Miss Helen Bosworth, a music teacher, who gave him musical training, and showed him other kindnesses, and who afterward became Mrs Callen. For forty-three years they walked together in that devotion that made her the sharer of his success, and he the constant recipient of devoted attention and most loyal support. Their marriage occurred January 1, 1873. They continued in educational work two years, then came to Greenville, Michigan, where Brother Callen had opportunity to engage in a manufacturing enterprise with a friend; but it was to the ministry he felt his life call and he entered the regular work in the Michigan Conference in 1876, and joined in full membership in 1878. At the time of his death he was the oldest in active service in the Conference save one who joined the same year.



MARSHALL M. CALLEN.

Dr. Callen came quickly to recognition as a conference leader. He was five times elected to the General Conference, at the head or near the head of his delegation. He was five years Conference Secretary. He served five years as district superintendent of the Kalamazoo District. His pastorates were among the larger churches of the Conference. He left his place at the head of Kalamazoo District to accept appointment at First Church, Jackson, where he had given one full term in the pastorate. Other charges were: Traverse City, Saint Joseph, Portland, Lansing, Central, Hillsdale,, Eaton Rapids, Ionia, Cadillac and Marshall. In his pastorates his strong sermons and able administration were accompanied by soulful singing for which he had gifts and passion. He knew and loved the children of his parish, but was favored with none in his home. A generous giver, he always led his congregation in liberal offerings of money for the church in its local and general work. His latest large gift being $1,000.00 for the Centenary to be credited to the church at Marshall.

For twenty-eight years he had been the president of the Michigan State Holiness Camp Ground Association located at Eaton Rapids. This great meeting was on his heart. He gave it his thought and best effort. He believed in the Wesleyanic doctrine of holiness as taught there, and witnessed to the experience. The Callen Memorial Tabernacle, with seating capacity of five thousand, was made possible by his generous gift in memory of Mrs. Callen, though it will now stand as a monument to them both. Their beautiful cottage on the river front has been purchased by the Association as an administration building and home for honored guests.

Dr. Callen was influential in all conference and committee meetings. He had strong convictions and could give clear utterance to them. In debate he was pungent, logical, and fearless. He commanded the attention of the General Conference, and was widely known throughout the church. He at one time received a considerable vote for the office of bishop. He had a good library, always buying the latest and best books of interest to the ministry and read them well. His papers at district meetings and elsewhere showed keen research and were listened to with great interest and profit. A brother beloved in the Conference, he will be greatly missed; possibly no one could be missed more.

The immediate relatives are: One brother, Geo. M. Callen, of Athens, Tenn., two sisters, Mrs Mattie E. Rankin, of Athens, Tenn., and Mrs. Marguerite Giffin, of Knoxville, Tenn., with their families and the children of a deceased sister.

The funeral service was held in the church at Marshall on Friday afternoon, July 25th, and was conducted by Dr. Hugh Kennedy. D. D. Martin, W. P. Manning, A. A. Geiger, Geo. A. Brown and A. R. Johns assisted in the service, and many Conference members were present. A brief service was held in the church at Cadillac, on Monday, July 28, Dr. C. S. Wheeler of Big Rapids in charge. He was assisted by Dr. Johnston of the Presbyterian Church, and M. D. Carrel, S. W. Large and J. W. Sheehan of the Michigan Conference. The remains rest by the side of his devoted wife in the cemetery at Cadillac. A memorial service was also held in the tabernacle at Eaton Rapids Camp Ground, Wednesday, July 30, in charge of W. P. Manning, at which P. J. Maveety, D. D. Martin, and Evangelist Joseph H. Smith spoke. His brother and two sisters were present at this service.

MYRON A. DAUGHERTY.

At the time of the death of Rev. Myron A. Daugherty there were but eight older living Methodist Episcopal ministers in the denomination. He was born in Macedon Center, Wayne county, N. Y., Sept. 29, 1823. He entered the regular ministry in 1855, and became a member of this conference in 1857. His appointments in Michigan were White Pigeon, Marshall, Jackson, Albion District, and Financial Agent of Albion College. In 1875 he was transferred back to the West Texas conference, where he did heroic work building churches at Dennison, San Antonio, Austin and Waco, and a college at Odessa, which later was destroyed by fire. After his retirement he was transferred back to the Michigan Conference. He passed away December 17, 1918, in Denver, where he had been living for the past sixteen years. He is survived by the widow and two grandsons. The burial is at Crownhill, Denver.

THOMAS T. GEORGE.

Thomas T. George was born in upper Bodington, North Hamptonshire, England, April 17, 1830, and went to his heavenly home Saturday morning, Jan. 25, 1919.

When two years old he came with his parents to America. He was converted March 22, 1850, in Pulaski, N. Y. His call to the ministry was very definite and he was licensed to exhort in 1854. Three years later he was licensed to preach. He joined the Michigan Conference at Lansing, September 18, 1857, received deacon's orders in 1859 and his final ordination as elder in 1861. His marriage to Sophia Warren was happy and blessed with six children, Zella, Zenas, Nella, Mell, Orlo and Bessie. Four of the children died in infancy or early childhood; Zenas, the son, also a minister, was killed by the cars, at Steele, North Dakota. He was pastor of the Methodist church at Dawson, N. D., at the time of his death, February 3, 1907. Two daughters survive him, Gladys and Marion, who reside with their mother in Grand Rapids.

Brother George was a good preacher, a faithful pastor, loved by young and old alike, a wide reader, a manly Christian man. His appointments have been Berrien Springs, Lawrence, Coloma, Lawton, Oshtemo, Pokagon, Buchanan, Decatur, Edwardsburg, Bronson, North Adams, Colon, Lawton, Holland, Cedar Springs, Middleville, Rockford, Hart. At Rockford, June 20, 1892, his wife, Sophia, companion of his early manhood and mother of his children, died. In August, 1896, he was married to Mrs Sarah Cole Moon of Cedar Springs. The last appointment which Brother George served was Hart. The family then included Miss Genevieve Moon and Mr. George's daughter, Bessie. Following his retirement, September 14, 1899, the family moved to Cedar Springs and lived at the Moon homestead nine years until the death of Mrs. George in 1908. Following the death of his wife, Brother George made his home with his daughter, Bessie, and son-in-law, Wm. E. Webb, principal of Webb Academy in Grand Rapids. His life in this institution was a constant blessing to the family and to the students, who lovingly referred to him as "Father George." These last years of his life were sweetened and blessed by the ministrations of daughter and son who, with tender solicitude anticipated his wishes and made his dreams come true.

THOMAS T. GEORGE.

During the eleven years which Brother George spent in Grand Rapids, he was very active in the affairs of Trinity Sunday School and Brotherhood, and he radiated sunshine through the whole organization. He prayed to live until the war ended and until National prohibition was achieved, and his prayers were answered.

His favorite avocation was astronomy and often he would prolong his study far into the night, even when advanced in years. October 25, 1918, he wrote in his diary:

"The heavens declare thy glory Lord,
The universe thy night,
But Brighter far thy sacred word
Where Love itself's the Light."

Brother George was awarded the conference cane, the gift of Mr George Whitworth, which is held by the oldest member of the conference during his lifetime. The whole life and ministry of this splendid man was a showing forth of "that inward light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world," and his sweet life will be long remembered.

A. M. GOULD.

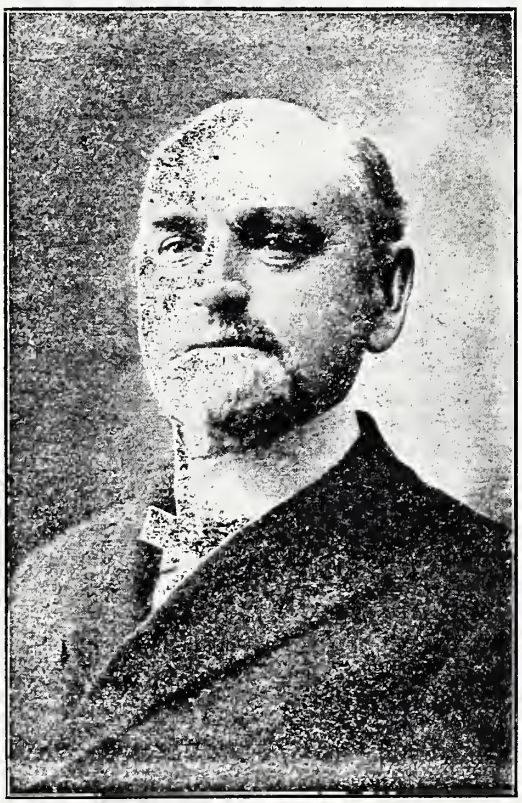
Rev. Amos M. Gould, D. D., died Wednesday night, July 9, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William R. Fox, Kalamazoo, Mich. Dr. Gould had been in poor health for many years, but it was not until about six weeks before his death that a general breakdown set in.

He was born in Moscow, Hillsdale county, Mich., December 29, 1845. When the lad was 11 years of age the family moved to Jackson. Here he attended the public schools and become a member of the Sunday School of the First Methodist church. He graduated from the Ira Mayhew Commercial College of Albion, February 17, 1866. Soon after this he was employed as bookkeeper with the old law firm of Bostwick and Gould, Jackson, Mich. While in this position he was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, having felt his call to the ministry before making this public confession of faith.

The young man at once began preparation for his life work, and by manual labor, teaching school and preaching, he paid his own way through a seven years' course of study. He was graduated from Hillsdale College with the class of 1873, receiving the degree of B. S., and two years later the degree of M. S. He graduated from Garrett Biblical Institute in 1875. In 1895, he was honored by his alma mater, Hillsdale College, with the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Brother Gould preached his first sermon on August 16, 1869. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop Thomas Bowman at the session of the Rock River conference, Oct. 11, 1874, and elder by Bishop R. S. Foster at Ionia, Sept. 14, 1879. He united with the Michigan conference on trial at Battle Creek, Sept., 1875, and was appointed to the Leroy circuit. His following appointments were Union City, where, during his pastorate, the new brick church was erected; Niles, where a new parsonage was built; First Church, Kalamazoo, which church under his leadership built and launched the Simpson Methodist church. In all these charges he served the full pastoral term. His later appointments were Ionia, Division Street church, Grand Rapids, presiding elder of Coldwater district, and First church, Coldwater.

While serving the district and pastorate of Coldwater he suffered much from nervous exhaustion and at the end of his first year as pastor at Coldwater was so broken that he accepted a nominal appointment as pastor of the Kalamazoo circuit and moved to Kalamazoo. This was in September, 1896. After some months' rest and recuperation, although he never regained has full health, he arranged with the people of School District No. 6, Kalamazoo township, to hold a preaching service each Sunday in their school house. From this grew the Damon church which Dr. Gould organized, built and served as pastor for fourteen years, thus rounding out thirty-five years of active and efficient ministry in the Michigan conference.



A. M. GOULD.

In the fall of 1912 Dr. Gould was so impaired in health that he felt compelled to give up the pastorate of the little church he loved so well, and was placed on the retired list. With his estimable wife he became a member of the congregation of the Stockbridge Avenue church, greatly beloved by his neighbors and honored by the people of the Stockbridge Avenue church.

Though in such poor health as to be unfit for any active work, his life during the past six years has been a continual blessing. During these last six years, until his final sickness laid him low, he missed but one regular Sunday morning service and one Thursday evening prayer meeting. During the years of his active ministry he had been a great pastor among his people, and in his retirement he was lovely and pleasant in his life and faithful unto death.

Dr. Gould was married to Miss Charlotte Newman of Evanston, Ill., in 1875. To them two children were born. One, a son, Newman Copeland Gould, died in infancy. His daughter is Mrs Carrie Gould Fox, to whose home he was taken during his last sickness and by whom, with Mrs. Gould, he was tenderly ministered unto till the end.

The funeral service was held in Kalamazoo, July 12, and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. T. Cartland, assisted by Rev. W. F. Kendick, D. D., President Jos. W. Mauck of Hillsdale College, Rev. M. M. Callen, D. D., Rev. Isaiah Wilson, Rev. J. C. Floyd, Rev. R. H. Bready and Rev. Joseph Peatling.

E. E. SPRAGUE.

Elmer E. Sprague was born on a farm in the township of Keene, Ionia county, Mich., on August 6, 1861, and died at the Mercy Hospital, Cadillac, Mich., June 14, 1919.

His father's home was an old-time Methodist home and under the sacred influences of his early home he was converted at the age of fourteen years, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. At this early age he received a distinct call to the ministry, but for fourteen years did not obey.

On April 1, 1889, he entered the ministry of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection and preached in that church for eight years. Then he transferred his membership back to the Methodist Episcopal Church and was admitted into the Michigan Annual Conference, in which conference he served the following charges: Crystal, one year; East Jordan, four years; Bear Lake, one year; Duplain, four years; Orange, two years; Potterville, two years; Elsie, two years; Elk Rapids, two years, and Kalkaska nearly three years. From here he was called to his higher reward. His labors in every charge were abundantly blessed and many were the souls he won for the Master.

In 1882 he was united in marriage with Miss Mary A. Shaw, who survives him. No children were born to them. Besides his devoted wife he leaves to mourn his death two sisters, Mrs. Estella Shaw of Whitefish, Montana, and Miss Ina Sprague of Belding, Mich., and a host of dear friends.

Some time in the latter part of February or early March last he was compelled to undergo a surgical operation from which he never fully recovered, but continuing to decline in health and strength, went in June to Mercy Hospital at Cadillac for a second operation. Upon examination the operating surgeon of the hospital said: "Mr. Sprague, there is no chance for you in this operation. I do not like to perform it." He replied: "Doctor, I have a better home than this for which I am fully prepared, so go on with the operation; but there is just one request I want to make of you and that is, Get ready to meet me in heaven." His last audible words to his wife who stood by him just before the operation were: "Do not worry, dear, over anything. It is all peace and joy, peace and joy."

He died a very triumphant death, and as Mr. Wesley said of the early Methodists, "He died well."

His funeral services were held in the church in Kalkaska on Thursday, June 19, attended by a very large concourse of people, filling the church to its utmost capacity, attesting the high esteem in which he was held in that community. Rev. N. F. Jenkins preached the funeral sermon. A large number of his ministerial brethren were present, and his remains were interred in the cemetery at Kalkaska.

As it was said of one in olden time, "He was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and faith; and much people was added unto the Lord."

N. F. Jenkins.

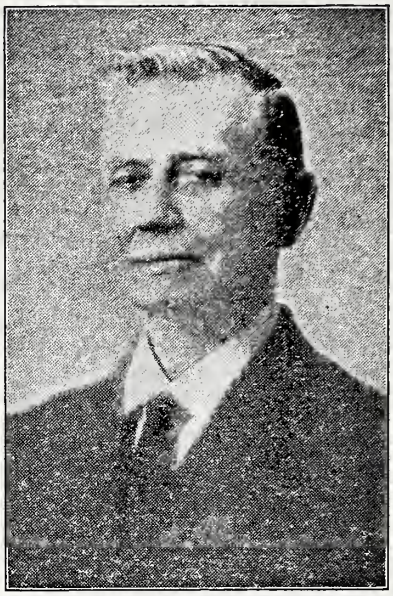
HERBERT W. THOMPSON.

Herbert W. Thompson was born March 16, 1851, at Hudson, Ohio. He was converted at the age of 16. Soon after he felt his call to the ministry, but he hesitated until his Sunday School teacher suggested it. He took this as an answer to his prayer for human guidance. He immediately entered Albion College, preparatory to being admitted to the Michigan Conference in 1888. He was ordained an elder in 1893.

His marriage to Sarah Jennings occurred September 17, 1891. Two children, Gay and Leon, blessed this union. Both boys are now serving with the American Expeditionary Forces in France. Bro. Thompson had waited keenly for the home-coming of his boys from the service.

He spent twenty-nine years of the best of his life in the Christian ministry. He served these charges: Burr Oak, Kinderhook, Athens, Colon (where he was six years, the first in Michigan Conference to serve so long a pastorate), Coloma, Elk Rapids (six years), Centerville, Leslie. He retired in 1917 and settled at Leslie. Soon after the physical organism broke down. Last Decoration Day the collapse happened, just after attending the afternoon service, where he had made the day's convocation. From this time he suffered from high blood pressure and a partial paralysis. For a while he seemed to recover from the collapse but on Saturday, April 5, 1919, he passed to his reward.

Brother Thompson preached splendid sermons, feeding his people on the strong meat of the Word. On every charge gracious revivals attended his pastoral labors. He was an enthusiastic worker, a conscientious preacher, who was always looking for the opportunity to lead a soul into fellowship with the Master.



HERBERT W. THOMPSON.

The Funeral services were held in the church, Rev. H. Liddicoat, pastor, having charge. Dr. Hugh Kennedy, district superintendent of the Albion district, preached the sermon. Neighboring pastors attended the funeral as honorary pall-bearers. Interment was at Woodlawn cemetery in Leslie.

JOHN W. WHITE.

John W. White was born in Clear Lake, Ind., April 12, 1842, and God called him home from his earthly labors March 1, 1919, his age being 77 years. He came to Michigan with his parents when a small boy and lived in Three Rivers. In the year 1871 he was converted to Christ and united with the Methodist Protestant Church.

He was first married to Martha Bayn and to this union were born three children, Lenore, Fanny Belle and Wm. L., of whom only Wm. L. survives. Mrs. Martha Bayn-White passed away in 1913. Later he was married to Mrs Alice B. George, who had served several years as a minister's wife in the Michigan Conference.

For a few years Brother White was a minister in the Methodist Protestant church, from which communion he transferred to the Methodist Episcopal church in the year 1873, and remained in the same until God called him home to meet his two brothers, Joshua and James, who had gone before, and who were also members of the Michigan Conference.

During his ministerial life in our church he served the following charges: Prairieville, Waukeshma, Burr Oak, Gilead, Cambria, Kinderhook, Allen, Burlington, Bowne and Olivet. In the fall of 1889 he took a supernumerary relation. In 1890 he supplied Coldwater circuit. In 1894 he was made effective again and served the following charges: Burlington, Butler, Osseo, Mosherville and Frontier. Then in 1904 he was superannuated, but supplied Burlington that year. The following four years he lived in retirement. In 1909 he was appointed to supply Leonidas and served there the next three years. For six months, during the last year of his life, he suplied as pastor on the White Pigeon charge.

JOHN W. WHITE.

Brother White was a man of conviction and was always loyal to the same. Through many years of sacrifice and service "he endured as seeing Him who is invisible."

The funeral services were held from the Methodist Episcopal Church, Constantine, conducted by B. C. Parks, the pastor, assisted by the other two pastors of the village, and the Methodist pastor at White Pigeon.

The body was taken to Albion, Mich, for interment where other members of the family rest.

There are left to mourn his death a widow, one son, Wm. L., and a host of friends made in the various fields of his ministerial life.

B. C. Parks.

MRS. J. W. DAVIDS.

Alice Smith Davids was born at Phoenix, N. Y., July 27, 1857, and died May 20, 1919, at Albion. Her early life was spent at Phoenix until 1869 when she came with her parents to Michigan. Graduating from the high school in Greenville, she taught school several years.

She was united in marriage in October, 1884, at Columbia, South Dakota, to Rev. J. W. Davids. To this union were born eight children, five dying in infancy.

She was the daughter of a Baptist minister and was converted in early life and baptized by her father and became a member of the church. After their marriage they served the following churches: Coral, Lowell, Cedar Springs, Anoka, Minnesota, St. Paul; while here they lost four children with scarlet fever within ten days. They then came back to Michigan and served these churches: Stanton, Carson City, Kalamazoo, Homer, Muskegon, Decatur, Whitehall. Then they made their home in Charlotte for six years. Her husband preceded her to the heavenly home a year ago last February.

She was a devoted wife and mother, and an efficient co-laborer in the ministry. She loved the church and Sunday school and took a special interest in missions at home and abroad. While caring for a daughter in college she passed away after a brief illness.

She leaves to mourn her departure three daughters, Mrs. R. W. Keith, of Battle Creek, Mrs F. A. Wheeler, of Detroit and Mabel Davids who is attending college at Albion.

There were two grandchildren, Dorothy and Mary Keith, and one sister, Mrs Emma Coldren of Hillsdale, and a host of friends.

There is no death, the stars go down,
To rise upon some fairer shore.
And brighten Heaven's jeweled crown
They shine forever more.

A. F. Way.

MRS. JUDSON P. DURHAM.

Mrs. Flora Durham, wife of Rev. Judson P. Durham, of North Muskegon, was much beloved by all who knew her everywhere. Her friends were as many as her acquaintances. She was beautiful in her life and most devoted to her home, her church and to her Lord. She loved everybody. Her heart went out to the suffering and to all who had need of sympathy. The young people knew she loved them and yearned for their best good, and sorrowed if they were wayward, like a mother for her child.

Never did North Muskegon have a pastor's wife who was more esteemed than she.

On Sunday, Nov. 17, 1919, she was in the center of activity in the church services and the Sunday School; before the following Wednesday night had come her Lord had opened the door of her heavenly home for her admission to the eternal glories and to the reward of the "faithful until death."

MRS. JUDSON P. DURHAM.

The funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Revs. J. W. Vickers and Albert R. Elliott, in the church at North Muskegon on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 24, and she was buried in Oak Hill cemetery in Grand Rapids.

J. C. Floyd.

MRS. A. A. GEIGER.

On the afternoon of June 5 Mrs. Alice Agnes Gray Geiger, wife of Rev. Andrew A. Geiger, passed triumphantly from the life of faith to the blessed experience of the presence of Christ. For several years Mrs. Geiger has borne up heroically under the burden of failing health. Her intense love for her family, her eager loyalty to the Church, and her rare ability in young people's work kept her active when many would have given up to physical pain and exhaustion. Her history is the life-long record of Christian devotion to the needs and welfare of others. She was born in Armstrong county, Pa., December 6, 1868. When she was fifteen her people came to live in Lake City, Mich. Here, two years later, the mother died and left a family of eight children. The oldest of these was Mrs Geiger, and upon her young shoulders fell the responsibility of mothering the seven younger children. Notwithstanding these heavy home cares she continued her educational preparation, graduating from the Lake City high school and attending the Ferris Institute at Big Rapids. After completing her training she taught school for three years. On December 28, 1889, she was married to Rev. Andrew A Geiger, then a local preacher, and a happy home life of nearly thirty years began. The first child, a son, died in early infancy. Four children remain to revere the memory of this devoted mother: Mabel Edith, Paul Harold, Dorothy Lucile and Robert Gray.

MRS. A. A. GEIGER.

The funeral was held at the Maple Street Church, Battle Creek, and was in charge of the district superintendent, Dr. J. R. T. Lathrop. Other ministers who took part in the service were Dr. Hugh Kennedy and Dr. M. M. Callen, representing the Michigan Conference; Rev. William H. Phelps, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who spoke for the City Ministerial Association; Rev. F. E. George and F. H. Clapp, the Methodist pastors of the city. The service was pervaded with the spirit of Christian faith and was a fitting tribute to this noble and devout life. The many expressions of appreciative love and sympathy were most genuine and full of comfort. For over a quarter of a century Mrs. Geiger has shared with her husband in the privileges and responsibilities of the ministry. Her devotion never lagged. Her service was eager and glad. Her intuitive discernment was uniformly dependable. Her spirit of self-forgetful love was most inspiring. She will be missed grievously, not only by the family but by the countless folks to whom her life has been a blessing. That fine tribute of St. Paul to the Christians at Phillipi is very expressive of the high esteem in which Mrs. Geiger was held and of the tender memories which will be cherished through the years: "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you."

F. H. Clapp.

MRS. H. M. JOY.

Jennie O'Hea was born in Abbey Mahon, County of Cork, Ireland, in the Month of July, 1846. When she was four years of age her parents decided to come to America. While on the way over her father and a brother died at sea. Her mother brought the remaining members of the family to Philadelphia, where the daughter, Jennie, grew to womanhood. Upon the death of her mother she came to Battle Creek, Mich., to live, where she later met and married the Rev. H. M. Joy, who at that time was a member of the Michigan Conference. In 1886 the Rev. Joy was transferred to Indiana, and stationed at Greencastle, where shortly afterwards he met with a serious accident resulting in his death.

A son, H. M. Joy, was born to this union. After graduating in the school of medicine, and also taking post graduate work in Europe, Dr. Joy settled in Calumet, Mich., where he still lives. For the past eighteen years Mrs. Joy has made her home with her son. She was a lady of unusual culture and refinement, and was highly respected by her many friends in Calumet. After a short illness, although her recovery was fully expected, she passed away the morning of the twenty-sixth of February, 1919, in the triumphs of a living faith. Her remains were taken to Grand Rapids, Mich., and placed beside her husband there to await the glad Resurrection morning.

D. C. Littlejohn.

MRS. W. W. JOHNSON.

Mary Hower was born in Columbia county, Pennsylvania, Dec. 10, 1826. She was converted in a large revival meeting in which her father, mother and brother were converted. She united with the Methodist Episcopal Church when thirteen years of age.

She was married to Rev. George King, of the Michigan conference, Nov. 10, 1846. He died October 27, 1850.

She married Rev. W. W. Johnson, also of the above named conference, October 13, 1863. With him she served in the itinerancy about six years when they located in the eastern part of the city of Grand Rapids. Brother Johnson died August 4, 1900. Their industry and frugality gained for them a competency and they gave generously to the missionary society and Albion College.

Sister Johnson entered Clark Memorial Home August 7, 1907. From here she was translated to her eternal home January 7, 1919.

She had two step-granddaughters in whose affections she held the place of a real mother. She was devoted to her Lord and the highest ideals of life.

Funeral services were held at the Home, Thursday, January 9, conducted by Rev. Dr. John Graham, a lifelong friend.

MRS. R. M. MILLARD.

Estelle Rodgers Millard was born near Ronceverte, West Virginia, December 5, 1889. She joined the Methodist Church at the age of fourteen and lived a faithful and consistent Christian life till she was called to the Church triumphant which is without fault before the throne of God. She was educated in the public schools of West Virginia, the University of Chattanoogo, West Virginia Wesleyan University and the Cincinnati Missionary Training School. She was united in marriage to the Rev. Richard M. Millard, of Athens, Tennessee, June 19, 1913, to which union one child, Richard M., Jr., now seven months old, was born. She went to her glorious reward from Battle Creek, Michigan, Feb. 2, 1919, leaving to mourn their loss her husband and son of Eaton Rapids, Michigan, her mother, Mrs James M. Rodgers, two sisters, Dessie and Mary, five brothers, Earl, Burton, Homer, Cecil, and Lester of Ronceverte, West Va. Mrs. Millard possessed a most pleasing personality which admitted her to a secure place in the hearts of a wide circle of admiring friends. Her sunny disposition radiated good cheer wherever she went. Her heart was the receiving station for all good deeds and high ideals. She was so Christlike and cosmopolitan in character as to become the friend of all. She was benevolent, gracious and forbearing. She was always considerate of others. Her culture and refinement made it easy for her to mingle among those of similar taste while her broad sympathy placed her at equal advantage among the lowly. Her Christian life was as bright and steady as the stars. Her faith knew no faltering. During the long weeks of critical illness and severe suffering not one word of complaint passed her lips. She saw everything in the light of God's will and calmly waited His order. When it came she was ready and unafraid. She could have said with Mrs Booth, "The waters are rising and so am I. I am not going under, I am going over." Or with Frances Willard, "How beautiful to be with God." Funeral services were conducted at Salem Church, near Ronceverte, West Virginia, and were attended by a host of friends, most of whom had known her from her happy childhood. Our dear and gracious friend, the minister's devoted and faithful wife, little Richard's beautiful and ideal young mother still lives.

RESOLUTIONS.

The Committee on Resolutions, through their chairman, Mr. A. M. Fleischhauer, reported the following, which was adopted:

Whereas, The membership of this Conference, consisting of 72,000 members, has been apportioned by our general Conference 1-70th of the average salary of the Conference for the support of our aged and infirm ministers (Conference claimants), amounting to $46,496, for the year; and

Whereas, This last year we only raised $29,837, allowing each claimant only $9.00 per service year instead of $14.28 per service year as apportioned: we hereby

Resolve, That we as lay members of our great Church will rise to our duty and responsibility and pledge ourselves to meet our apportionment this year in full in our respective charges this year, and guarantee to each Conference claimant the minimum of $14.28 per service year from this time forth.

Whereas, The cost of living during the past four years has been steadily increasing, yet in many cases there has been no increase in the salaries paid our ministers; and

Whereas, The wealth of our constituency has been steadily increasing;

We resolve, That we as laymen, representing our Churches, are amply able to increase substantially the salaries of all those ministers who have during this period received no advance in salary;

Be it further resolved, That we, upon whom the responsibility largely rests for the maintenance of efficient ministry, recommend that the minimum cash salary paid to any minister who devotes his entire time to this work be $1,000.00, and pledge ourselves to our utmost endeavor to see this result achieved in every pastoral charge.

Whereas, The citizens of the City of Lansing have given us of their hospitality; and

Whereas, Our sister Church, the First Presbyterian Church of this city, has opened its doors to us;

We hereby resolve, That we, the lay members of the Michigan Conference in convention assembled, do hereby render them our thanks for the kindness and brotherly spirit shown.

ELECTIONS.

The following persons were nominated by their respective districts and in each case the Secretary was instructed to cast 169 votes for such nominees, and they were declared elected: Luren D. Dickinson for Albion District, Arthur W. Huckle for Big Rapids District, Lewis T. Wilmarth for Grand Rapids District, Leon L. Tyler for Grand Traverse District, John C. Coburn for Kalamazoo District, Maurice G. Skinner for Lansing District, and Mrs. Louie J. Scidmore for Niles District.

After nominations a ballot was taken for three alternates, resulting in the election of the following: 1st, Dr. Samuel Dickey, of Albion; 2nd, Mrs. Jennie McNeil, of Lansing, and 3rd, John C. Ketchum, of Hastings.

James B. Field of Jackson was re-elected by unanimous vote as permanent Secretary of the Laymen's Conference for the four year period.

Secretary Field read the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Conference voted to adopt the amendments by a vote of 134 yes and 3 no.

Moved that it is the desire of this Conference that the article in the discipline be left as it is. Carried.

Rev. W. F. Kendrick and Rev. E. A. Armstrong brought greetings from the Michigan Conference to the Lay Electoral Conference and invited the delegates to attend the afternoon session in a body. On motion the invitation was accepted.

On motion the Conference adjourned.

J. E. STRONG,

Twenty-One Years' Experience

Has more than vindicated the wisdom of the General Conference of 1896 in ordering the organization of this company.

The full service that has been rendered to world-wide Methodism could not possibly be indicated in figures, although the tangible results are most gratifying.

Probably more than one-third of all of our churches in this country were without any insurance prior to the organization of the National Mutual Church Insurance Company. There is always a temptation to neglect insurance when there is difficulty about raising money enough for claims that are more immediately pressing and in many cases it did not seem possible to those in charge of the local work to meet the high charges of the stock companies, and in those days there was no organization to keep persistently calling attention to the worse than foolish short-sightedness of allowing any claim to cause postponement of insurance for a single day. The first duty is to protect the property—even before the building is completed, which the faithful members had made sacrifices to erect, and to keep it insured every moment thereafter. The day has gone, thanks to this organization, when the hat can be passed around for funds for rebuilding an uninsured church or parsonage without attention being publicly called to the incapacity and neglect of those whom the members had a right to expect would protect their interests. If the trusteeship were for secular property the courts could, and probably would, compel those who had permitted the loss to make it good personally. This principle should appeal even more certainly when the property is of a sacred character.

When uninsured church property is destroyed an injury is done to the work of Methodism that reaches to the farthest corners of the world, for funds which would otherwise be available for paying missionairies, building churches, supporting worn-out preachers and doing all the other splendid things that characterize our church, must be diverted to restoring buildings that insurance money would have largely taken care of.

LET THE CENTENARY YEAR MARK AN END OF SUCH NEGLECT! Insurance at ACTUAL COST paid for in easy annual installments. NO ASSESSMENTS. Policies protected by the same cash reserve required by law of stock companies.

Welch's

"THE NATIONAL DRINK"

Founded on the principle of national welfare, Welch's has been growing in service and popularity for more than 50 years. First prepared for sacramental purposes, then prescribed by physicians for its healthfulness, and finally adopted by all the people as a delightful beverage, it is truly "The National Drink". Now as always, Welch's is just the pure, unfermented juice of ripe Concord grapes, pressed fresh and sealed in glass.

Welch's Grapelade

"A pure grape spread"

A new member of the Welch family, and fully worthy of the Welch name. It is made from whole, ripe grapes, without seeds, skins or acid crystals. Its fresh grape flavor is delightful. As a spread for bread, biscuits, muffins, toast; for making tarts, jelly-roll and other pastry; for ice cream and sundaes, Grapelade is equally fine.

Write for Welch Ways, a Book of 99 recipes for using Welch's, and we'll also send a new collection of recipes for Welch's Grapelade.
